

GUIDELINES FOR THE 2007 AUSTRALIAN ART EDUCATION

Author A. One

Author One's Institution

Author B. Two

Author Two's Institution

Abstract

The purpose of these guidelines is to describe how you should prepare your paper for publication for the Australian Art Education journal. You must follow these directions in order to have your paper accepted for publication.

Introduction

Each submitted paper will be read by at least two (probably three) members of the Editorial Board. If your paper is accepted for publication, you will be notified and you will receive marked-up copies of your paper. You will have two weeks to make final corrections and return your copy prepared for publication.

Page Layout

The page layout provides a consistent style for the journal. The guidelines provided must be used for formatting your paper for it to be accepted.

Margins

All articles must be formatted as a Word document. All pages must be aligned left.

Spacing

Single space the text and major heading groups. Separation between sentences should consist of two spaces before you begin the next sentence. One space should be left between paragraphs.

Indenting

Do not indent at the beginning paragraphs.

Page Numbers

Do not number the pages.

Text body format

The submitted article must be presented in a continuous format so that the type setter/graphic designer can arrange appropriately for the printer.

Images/tables/figures

You are able to add images, tables or figures to your paper. Tables should be identified with an appropriate caption or label.

Type

You must use the Arial font for the text of the paper. The font size for the body should be 10 pt.

Title

The size of the letters in your title should be 14 pt. using Arial font in bold
Use all upper letters for your title.

Author Lines

The name(s) of the author(s) should appear in the next space below the last title line. Use 10 pt. bold type for this line. You should include only the name of the author(s) on this line. On the next line include the institution represented. If multiple authors write the paper, include their names and institutions on each consecutive line.

Abstract

Your paper must have an abstract. The abstract should be no more than 120 words. It will be headed with the word Abstract centered with 10 pt. bold, Arial type. The text of the abstract will follow in 10 pt. italics. The abstract will be separated from the body of the paper by two 10 pt. line spaces.

Headings And Subheadings

When using headings and subheadings follow these guidelines:

1st level heading, 10 pt. type, bold, Arial

2nd level heading, 10 pt. type, regular, Arial

All words in headings and subheadings will be typed with the first word beginning with a capital and then lower case.

Footnotes

No footnotes allowed.

References

Reference lists should follow the American Psychological Association style with no indenting.
